

Microsoft Campus Agreement: Work at Home Acceptance Form

This acceptance form is valid for the Microsoft software products listed below, which shall be referred to collectively herein as the "Software".

- Microsoft Windows XP Professional Desktop Operating System Upgrade
- Microsoft Office Professional for Windows and Macintosh

The Software is made available to you because the University of Florida has purchased license coverage for the Software through its Microsoft Campus Agreement. You do not own the license or the CDs, rather you are authorized to use the Software and associated media pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Microsoft Campus Agreement. You will be required to remove the Software from your home machine when your employment by the University of Florida ends. You will be required to remove the Software from your home machine should the University end its agreement with Microsoft. The current agreement runs through October, 2007.

To participate in this agreement, you must acknowledge and agree to the terms and conditions listed:

- I am a University of Florida employee. (A university employee is any person who receives a pay check from the university.)
- When I install the software, I will read and abide by the license agreement(s) associated with this Software.
- I understand that no technical support is provided by Microsoft or the University of Florida in association with my work-at-home use.
- I understand the minimum specifications to run the Software are listed at www.microsoft.com/windows and www.microsoft.com/office
- I am entitled to only one copy of the software for work at home use.
- I will remove the Software from my home machine immediately upon the earlier of (a) expiration of the licensed period specified above or (b) the end of my employment by the University of Florida.

I signify with my signature (below) that I have read and agree to all of the terms and conditions governing the use of the software listed above.
